The Design Studio At Veridian Homes

For many of our homeowners, visiting the Veridian Homes Design Studio is the most enjoyable part of the home building process. Forget about running around to different suppliers all over town. Under one roof, you can select flooring, faucets, siding, shingles, cabinets, countertops and much, much more – all of which are offered in the quality brands that you've come to know and love. With the help of our Design Studio Consultants and your New Home Specialist, you can build a home that's as exceptional as you.
